

Carnival of Cans, LLC

Vendor Application & Policies

General

Carnival of Cans LLC will designate the areas available for booths during their event. Approved booths may be set up on Friday Morning prior to the Office Opening at 1 pm on that day. Booths must be removed not later than the event ends (unless other arrangements are made with venue/Carnival of Cans). Please check with Connie Dove at runnindove3@yahoo.com or 660-221-1076 or Betty Hollenberg at elizabeth@ktis.net or 573-682-7280 with set up and tear down times or if you have questions.

Each vendor is responsible to provide their own security for their booth, equipment; inventory located at the site from the time the booth is set up until it is taken down. Neither the Carnival of Cans, LLC nor the venue owners of Double J Arena – Roger and Debbie Johnson are responsible for items left on the site before, during or after the event. These requirements are considered part of the regulations which are to be followed. Exhibits must be confined to the booth space, and not encroached on the walkways or the spaces to the side or rear of the booth. Vendors should bring their own canopies, tables, chairs and securing devices. We only supply the booth space. Each vendor shall comply with all rules and regulations pertaining to the event.

Clean Up

The grounds around a booth are to be cleaned by the vendor and no wrappers of any kind are to be left in the area. Failure to properly clean the area, properly dispose of items, or follow the rules and regulations pertaining to the event are grounds for forfeit the preference given to existing vendors in future years or at future events.

Liability

Neither Carnival of Cans, LLC or the venue owners of Double J Arena – Roger and Debbie Johnson will be liable for any injury or accident or damage to vendor items during the event. We will not be responsible for any copyright infringements, shoplifting, consumer safety or other legal violations which may occur with regards to product, person, booth help or family members.
